

This is our big question
for the year:

What is special to me and the people in my community?

Resources

wedding pics, big sugar
paper, post it notes

LO: To be able to explain why people get married.

SC:

I can explain why some people get married.

I can express my opinions and beliefs, and give reasons for them.

SHARE

Have you ever attended a wedding?
Would you like to share your experiences?

Look at the pictures of different types of wedding ceremonies.

Discuss with your family/think about:
Who? What? Where? When? Why?

What religion do you think they are from (if any)? What is different/similar to weddings you have been to?

The pictures are from both religious and non-religious wedding ceremonies from all over the world.

Why do people get married?

Why do you think people get married?

Do you think it is always for religious reasons?

What promises do you think are made at a wedding?

Why do people get married?

Use the post it notes on your table to write your ideas about why people get married.

Discuss your ideas in small groups and then stick the post its in order of importance.

Extremely important
Very important
quite important

Learning more...

When you get home, ask your grown-ups about weddings which have taken place in your family.

Do they have memories to share? Thoughts? Photos?

